April 24, 2012 – Luncheon Meeting

Dr. Jeff Roach

Jeffrey Roach, Ph. D. – Chief Economist, Chair of Investment Committee

Dr. Roach is the Chief Economist of Horizon Investments as well as the current Chairman of the Investment Committee. Dr. Roach joined Horizon Investments in 2006 and is responsible for the firm's market analysis and portfolio management. Prior to joining Horizon Investments, he was a Senior Economist at Bank of America. While at Bank of America, his group was responsible for proprietary research that was closely guarded and seen only by the CEO and his senior bank executives. Periodic research was sent directly to the Chairman of the Federal Reserve. In order to facilitate cutting edge research, he maintains frequent contact with Federal Reserve economists, Wall Street Analysts and other leading economists from around the world. He is a frequent contributor to the financial press as well as a sought-after speaker for forums around the world. He recently presented economic research to Italy's Ministry of Finance in Rome. Dr. Roach received a B.S. in Mathematics from Bob Jones University, a M.A. in Economics from Clemson University, and a Ph.D. in Economics from Clemson University.

United Way of the Capital Region (UWCR) works year-round to change lives in Cumberland, Dauphin and Perry counties. They do this by identifying long-term and pressing community needs, finding solutions to address those needs and providing results that show how we are making a difference.

As part of UWCR's commitment to have a greater impact on solving long-term and emerging community problems, they are focusing their efforts on increasing available financial and non-financial resources, building stronger community partnerships and providing measurable results.
